University of Manitoba Shell Eco-Marathon Team

2017-2018 UM ecoMotion Registration Checklist

UM ecoMotion is an engineering student team dedicated to designing, building, and competing an ultra-efficient battery-electric vehicle that will ride down the streets of California in 2018 at the next Shell Eco-Marathon competition!

In just our first year, UM ecoMotion has been able to successfully compete and represent the University of Manitoba internationally. Our team placed 14th out of 27 and was the top Canadian University in the Battery-Electric Prototype category. We invite you all to join our team by completing the following steps!

- I have filled out the form below declaring my interest in joining UM ecoMotion for the 2017-2018 academic year: <https://goo.gl/mwy9pt>
- I have received an invitation to our Slack domain, <https://umecomarathon.slack.com/>, which will be used for most communications. If not, I have contacted our team captain, secretary, and/or system leads to receive an invite.
  - Team Captain, Kim Laberinto – teamlead@umecomotion.ca
  - Secretary, John Chen – secretary@umecomotion.ca
  - Communications Lead, Alan Huynh, comms@umecomotion.ca
  - Sponsorship Lead, Mykel Gallajones, sponsorship@umecomotion.ca
  - Propulsion Electric Lead, Derek Fonseca – electric@umecomotion.ca
  - Mechanical Lead, Alex Taplin – mechanical@umecomotion.ca
- I have read and will adhere to the UM ecoMotion 2017-2018 Constitution posted on the team website: <http://umecomotion.ca/content/constitution>
- I have circled my T-shirt (Hanes) size below:
 Small                  Medium                  Large                  XL                  2XL                  3XL                  4XL
- I have included the UM ecoMotion membership fee of $40.00 (exact cash only), with this form, which will be used to purchase a team T-shirt for all members.
- I will sign and give this form to one of team/design leads, along with the membership fee. The team/design lead will also sign and date this form.
